

Nelson Family of Companies Recruits Jonathan H. Parker as Chief Executive Officer

Well-Known Staffing Company Expands Top Management Team

Sonoma, Calif., May 29, 2008 – The Nelson Family of Companies—a leader in workforce management software and staffing—today announced that Jonathan “JP” Parker will join the company as Chief Executive Officer.

In his new role, reporting to Founder and Chairman Gary D. Nelson and the Nelson Board of Directors, JP will assume overall responsibility for strategic planning, business growth and profitability for all operating units of the Nelson Family of Companies. Parker is in a uniquely qualified position to lead Nelson, as he has served on the company’s Board of Directors for more than five years.

Gary Nelson, founder and chairman, will retain an active role in the Nelson Family of Companies, working with management on refining the company’s strategic vision, global initiatives and new business opportunities.

“JP’s extensive experience in strategically focused business expansion, and proven leadership with senior management teams will strengthen and enhance our growth and bring best practices to our team of business leaders,” Gary Nelson explains. “I look forward to working with JP whose experience will add management discipline and foster continued success as our family-owned business moves into the next generation of growth.”

“The Nelson Family of Companies has earned a well-deserved reputation for excellence, especially in the areas of service and impressive growth,” adds Parker. “In joining Gary and his team, my goal is to build upon the company’s many existing strengths while adding process improvements to assure operational excellence and financial success into the next generation.”

Parker spent the last five years with Boston Private Financial Holdings, most recently as Vice Chairman of this publicly traded firm. Parker had responsibility for five operating companies in the West with approximately 400 employees and profits of $25 million. He also led the acquisition program in the West and was a member of the seven-person Senior Policy Group for the enterprise.

Prior to Boston Private, Parker was a Founding Partner of Edgar, Dunn & Company (EDC) a management consulting firm. He was engaged by many varied Boards and Executive Offices seeking guidance on strategic planning, marketing/sales strategies, M&A, and profit improvement. Clients included national and multi-national companies such as AT&T, Holiday Inn Worldwide, The International Olympic Committee, MasterCard, Monsanto, Bancamer, and NASCAR.

Prior to EDC, Parker was a manager in the consulting practice of Deloitte & Touche. A graduate of Tufts University, Parker also holds an MBA from George Washington University.
